District Overview:

- Four unrelated sexual offense incidents occurred this week; two involving exposure and two involving sexual assault. See the D3 and E4 beat summaries for additional details.
- Several office buildings experienced burglaries (or attempts) this week. A B/M suspect was seen during those incidents attempting to open suite doors. See the E1 and E4 beat summaries for additional details.

D1 Beat:

- A domestic assault occurred on Saturday 6/17 at approximately 2200 hours in the 1900 block of East West Highway. The suspect is known to the victim.

D2 Beat:

- On Saturday 6/17 at approximately 1545 hours, a commercial strong armed robbery occurred at Bethesda Beer & Wine, 8015 Wisconsin Avenue. The suspect entered the store and posed as a customer. When the employee opened the cash register, the suspect pushed him back and took the cash from the register drawer. The suspect then fled on foot toward West Virginia Avenue.
Suspect: H/M (poss. B/M), 35-36, 6'-6'1/170-180 lbs, mustache/beard
- On Monday 6/19 at 2320 hours, a sexual assault occurred in the 7000 block of Fairfax Road. The suspect followed the female victim as she walked from Woodmont Avenue and towards Bradley Boulevard. The suspect came up from behind and groped the victim's buttock. The suspect attempted to grab the victim but the victim was able to get free and run away.
Suspect: B/M, 48-52, 5'7"-5'9"/160-180 lbs, beard, and balding hair

D3 Beat:

- On Monday 6/19 between 0915 and 1300 hours, a commercial burglary occurred from an office at 8901 Connecticut Avenue. The victim returned to the office to find a laptop missing from the front desk area. The door to the business is made of glass and the laptop could be seen from the outside.
- A residential burglary and auto theft took place sometime overnight from Sunday 6/18 to Monday 6/19 in the 3100 block of Blueford Road. The victim heard her dogs barking during the night and in the morning noticed that her purse was gone and her '01 Subaru was no longer parked in the driveway.
- Two sexual offenses occurred this week
 - On Wednesday 6/14 at 2200 hours, a teenaged victim was walking near Hampden Road and Vaugh Street when the suspect, an acquaintance, approached on a bike. The suspect assaulted the victim. The victim was eventually able to escape the suspect and flee the scene. The investigation continues.
 - On Monday 6/19 at 1330 hours, the victim looked outside of her residence in the 10900 block of St. Paul Street, and saw a W/M suspect walking in her back yard. She exited the residence to confront the suspect and saw him defecating in her yard. The suspect turned and exposed himself to the victim as he was pulling up his pants.
Suspect: W/M, 20-30, wearing a baseball cap and work boots

E1 Beat:

- Overnight from Tuesday 6/13 to Wednesday 6/14, two commercial office burglaries occurred at 5550 Friendship Boulevard. No signs of force were found on either suite doorway. At Bernard Wolf & Assoc., cash was taken. Property was also taken from the second office, Eduardo Gerlein Orthodontics.
- On Monday 6/19 at 2320 hours, a witness called MCP to report a burglary in progress in the 4600 block of Willard Avenue. The witness had observed a suspect wearing a blue shirt (NFI) walking around the residence. MCP responded and found a rear basement window had been broken with a shovel, allowing entry into the residence. The victim reported nothing missing.

E2 Beat:

- No significant activity to report.

E3 Beat:

- On Thursday 6/15 at 0340 hours, MCP responded to an alarm at Walter Johnson High School, 6400 Rock Spring Drive. Officers observed one suspect fleeing the scene and located a second suspect on top of the building. Two additional suspects were apprehended at the scene. Entry was gained via a side door near the locker rooms activating the alarm. The suspects did not take any property from the school.
